Mrs. Effa Manley,

of Negro National League, 71 Crawford Street,

Dear Madam:

I am in receipt of your Air Mail letter of the 12th inst., and have noted the contents of same.

As you know from my letters to you and Mr. Pompez, I have already received all of the publicity and adv. matter about both clubs, and everything is coming along great in the matter of publicity here.

As soon as I got your letter, I started to call up all of the colored hotels here in Buffalo, of which we only have three or four of some consequence; and thus far, I have contacted the Vendome Hotel, which is about the largest colored hotel here, as well as the most popular one here, and ~~also about the largest~~. When I have called up there, the manager of the hotel was out; and I have left my phone number with them, and awaiting word from him momentarily. Then next, I have called up the Little Harlem Hotel, and there is no room there; then I have called up the Winters Hotel, and the manager of that hotel is out too, so I am also awaiting word from that hotel too.

Owing to the fact that we are going to have a National Colored Convention here during the period of from Aug. 25th to 30th, 1946, the accommodations here in Buffalo are becoming very scarce. For that reason, I have also called up the local colored Y.M.C.A. on Michigan Avenue here in Buffalo, but they are all filled up. I also have a call in for the manager of the Montgomery Hotel here on Curtiss Street, right next to our Union Depot here, and hope to hear from him soon too. There is a possibility that your players may have to split up here on the night of Aug. 20th, 1946, as some of them may have to be accommodated in rooming houses if we cannot get enough hotel rooms. I will let you know more definitely tomorrow, however, after I hear from all of the other managers of those colored hotels here that I have called up. On your way here, I would suggest that your club stop at Binghamton first, and inquire there for the night of the 19th; and, if you are unable to get accommodated there, I feel quite certain that you will get rooms in Elmira. Very truly yours, Ray J. Fischer
